ANOTHER
REQUEST TO CORRECT PTO RECORDS AND FOR EXPLANATION
WHY PTO IS MIS-MAILING PAPERS TO THE WRONG LAW FIRM

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicants renew their request to correct the PTPO records to show the undersigned counsel as the counsel of record. Applicants' assignee appointed the undersigned pursuant to a power of attorney filed herein January 25, 2002. (See attached documents reflecting prior unsuccessful efforts to correct the matter.) It was and still is rather disturbing that the PTO would accept an unauthorized electronic address change from Pillsbury Winthrop, LLP, especially when said law firm had no power of attorney to transact business in this application. Why was the April 17, 2003 Office Action mailed to Pillsbury Winthrop, LLP?

Please re-set the response date, re-mail the Office Action correctly addressed to Applicants' lawful counsel of record. The delay in prosecution is the fault of the Patent Office. (Said law firm has compounded the problem by not forwarding the Office Action to the undersigned until June 30, 2003, which is more than two months after the PTO mis-mailed the Office Action in the first instance.)

Respectfully submitted,
